GAMIP Ambassador to Germany Letter of Introduction

This letter is to introduce Andreu Miquel Ginestet Menke as an official Ambassador of the Global Alliance for Ministries and Infrastructures for Peace (GAMIP), a worldwide community of civil society campaigns, organizations, committed citizens, and government officials and units campaigning and supporting the creation of federal-level Ministries of Peace (MoPs) including other Infrastructures for Peace.

GAMIP believes in strengthening the UN mission to establish international peace in tandem with the UN Sustainable Development Goals. GAMIP invites you to join us in working with our representative to establish ministries and other infrastructures for peace. We are prepared to share best practices and support efforts to develop Cultures of Peace in your national or organizational governance structures. Further information on GAMIP activities, and summits and resources can be found at www.gamip.org.

GAMIP is interested in collaboration with Germany in joint academic, governance, peace education, or projects. GAMIP is prepared to provide consulting services, advice, assistance and support in building ministries and infrastructures of peace at organizational, local or national levels. We have capacities for peace education and training, regarding peace practices, peace practitioner or peace professional competencies;

We are optimistic that a relationship with us will further advance peace in your country and the global community. We thank you for receiving Andreu Miquel Ginestet Menke as our Ambassador and look forward to working with you.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Oseremen Irene (Nigeria)

GAMIP President
